FROM THE COACH – FIRST TEAM

Hello friends, fans, and guests,

We welcome our guests from Ashfield SC. Ashfield is one of the most traditional football clubs in WA. With 13 points, they are our next neighbour on the ladder going upstairs and therefore our best target for 3 points over the weekend.

With two home games unbeaten, we are starting to build the confidence we need going forward. Our fans pushed us in both games, coming back in the second half after going down early. We say: Thank you for your support! The Balga Boys have shown that they never give up, and that the team spirit is intact.

The quick return of players like Jack Valentine (after a heavy injury) and Nicholas Bahr (from family duties) is needed, because with Covid (Dieudonne Said), injury (Meng Chroek, Bleron Mamudi) and University exams (Sam Kent), we are missing core players in our squad. Isaac Houghton's progress was visible in last weeks' 60 minutes, with Isaac putting in a shift at every training to improve further. In other positive news, with Aidan Holloway an experienced goalkeeper has joined our squad. Aidan is proving in training that he is a fighter, and our goalkeeper coach Dani Gros enjoys that Aidan improves the competitiveness in our goalkeeper team.

A special moment on the Ashfield weekend is that we welcome back "Mr Balga" Gary Shorto, who visits Perth with his family from New Zealand and will come down to push our team above and beyond.

Being under the impression that we dropped two points against Joondalop City because of our chance ratio of 9:2, it is even more important that Nathan Scully as the leader of our attack finds his way back to his extremely high finishing quality. Please all of you support and help our team keep the 3 points at Princess Road.

Let's go Balga!

OUR GUESTS

Ashfield Sports Club began life in 1970 as Ashfield Dynamo Soccer Club and started with juniors only. The club entered a senior team into the semi-professional competition in 1976, joining the Second Division (then known as Division Three). John Van Hoek was the coach, who would later become an Ashfield legend.

Ashfield found the going tough in its first three years, finishing last in 1976 and 1977, and second last in 1978. Due to the formation of a Fourth Division, the club were relegated. Most of the 1980's was a struggle for Ashfield Dynamo, staying in the old Fourth Division for most of the decade. However, things were slowly on the improve as the 1990's approached. In 1988, the club won the old Fourth Division and were promoted to what today would be known as the Second Division. The club finished 8th in 1989, 5th in 1990, followed by another 8th place finish in 1991. The game was in turmoil during that summer, with two associations at war on who controlled the game in Western Australia. This was to Ashfield's benefit, who joined the new Professional Soccer League in 1992, and were placed into the First Division. This would be the first time the club competed in the top two tiers, and they hadn't been out of the top two divisions until last season. Ashfield finished 9th in its first season in Division One under new coach Gerry Wardle.

1993 was a big year for the club. After much deliberation and heartache, the name "Dynamo" was dropped from the club's title. It was also the first time that the main pitch was enclosed at Ashfield Reserve with a surrounding fence, and floodlights were erected. A new grandstand was soon to follow. In 1996, Ashfield decided to form a partnership with Bunbury United. Eyebrows were raised when the "merged" club was announced, but it proved to be an initial success, with the new Ashfield/Bunbury becoming a force in Division One, finishing 5th in 1996, 3rd in 1997 and champions and promotion in 1998. 1999 would see top flight football at Ashfield Reserve for the first time ever, however it was a struggle, with Ashfield/Bunbury finishing 10th in it's first year before being relegated after the 2000 season.

In 2001, the partnership was dropped with Bunbury United, and the club once again became known as Ashfield. Under Tom Kilkelly the club won Division One and were back in the Premier League. However, once again the club struggled in the top flight and were relegated back to the First Division. Since 2003, the club had remained in Division One, but have had many ups and downs since. In 2005, the club escaped relegation to the Amateur League due to a last minute equaliser by Gosnells City against Kingsway Olympic. After this scare, changes were made. Salv Todaro became the new coach, who brought in many new players, with the reds finishing runners-up in both 2006 and 2007. A loss of many players put Ashfield on the brink of going down again in 2008, with the club finishing last and in the relegation position. However, Ashfield were saved from amateur football by the decision of Amateur Champions Fremantle United (now Fremantle City). Fremantle were expected by many to take the offer of promotion, however after various meetings they ended up declining the chance to play in the semi-professional competition for the moment.

Since 2011, under coaches Matt Carruthers, Paul Dundo and Matt Wardle, Ashfield had been a team that troubled most and would consistently finish in the top half of the league, with runners-up positions in 2014 and 2015. Only in 2018 did they finish as low as 8th. 2013 would also be treasured most by the Ashfield faithful, when the club made it all the way to the cup final, before losing out to Bayswater City 1-0 at Litis Stadium. In 2021, Ashfield finished bottom of the league, resulting in relegation. Dropping out of the top two divisions for the first time since 1991.

Ashfield visited Princess Road Reserve last season for the first time in twenty-five years after both clubs were in different leagues for that whole period. The game ended in a 2-2 draw.

The very first meeting between the clubs was back in 1979 at Ashfield Reserve when both clubs were in the old Fourth Division. Unfortunately we don't have the results from both of the games that season, however Balga finished runners-up to gain promotion, while Ashfield ended up in fifth spot.

It would be another fourteen years before the clubs met again, this time here at Princess Road Reserve in 1993. Ashfield won 4-2, while in the return leg later in the year, Ashfield easily won 4-1.

Known as Ashfield/Bunbury in 1997, the club continued the winning streak, with a 5-2 win at Balga. The game at Ashfield was much tighter, Balga were leading, with goals thanks to Peter Andrews and Anthony Banham, before Ashfield came back to win 3-2.

Official Balga SC Match Day Program
DIVISION TWO – ROUND 11 PREVIEW

10

www.footballwa.net

Last weekend saw the State League Division Two leaders drop points, with Kingsley Westside and Morley Windmills both losing, but they still have a small gap on the teams below them and they will look to bounce back in round 11, as we reach the half way point of the season. Two teams in the chasing pack are fourth placed Wanneroo City and third placed Swan United, and the pair meet in today. Both sides made ground on the leaders with 2-1 wins last week, Wanneroo beating Morley on the road, while Swan beat Carramar Shamrock Rovers at home, and with both sides level on points, three points in this one is massive.

Rhys Loxley bagged both goals in the win last week, and he said it was an important three points, especially with the teams around them dropping points. "Last week's win was really important, and we know that they have a clear and effective playing style, but we were able to deal with things reasonably well. I thought we deserved the win and were probably unfortunate not to score a few more goals and win a bit more comfortably," he explained.

A brace from Ben Wantee gave Wanneroo the win at Morley last week, and striker Dion Berman said it was a pleasing performance and something to build on going forward. "Yes, it was a massive win for the playing group, coaches and the club, and well-deserved," he said. "It was a great way to bounce back from the disappointing loss at Balga, but we're definitely not getting carried away and know how hard it is to win a game of football in this division, but it's something to build on." Berman said Saturday will be another challenge, against a good Swan side, but they want to make their home ground a fortress, and they are looking for a positive result.

In other games this weekend leaders Kingsley Westside travel to Grandis Park to meet Carramar Shamrock Rovers, both sides looking to get back into the winner's circle, likewise Morley Windmills who head north to take on Joondalup City at Iluka District Open Space. Ashfield will look to build on last week's win at Curtin when they make the trip to Princess Road Reserve to meet Balga, likewise Canning City, who stunned leaders Kingsley last week, and this week they host Quinns. In the final game Curtin University will aim to bounce back from their loss against Ashfield last week when they make the trip to Maida Vale Reserve to take on Maddington-Kalamunda White City. The hosts moved up to sixth after a brace from Jose Zuniga helped them to a 3-1 win at Quinns last week, and Nicolas Pardo said they are starting to hit their straps.

"We are a strong team that comes from less to more, every game for us is a football final," he said. "We are reaching the end of the first round where we have all our players recovered after injuries and some solid reinforcements too, we return home happy and prepared to assume our last matches of this first round." Pardo said they have prepared well for Saturday's home game, despite the inclement weather, and hope to end the first half of the season with a win. "We have been preparing our last match of round one despite the adversities of the weather," he said. "We have organized collective and personalized work to be able to be at our best level and thus achieve our goal of being in the top five before the end of the round. It has been a difficult league with very good rivals, that's why we prepare hard to be at our highest level."

FLASHBACK

The Professional Soccer League merged with the Soccer Federation of Western Australia in 1993 which meant a new league restructure. Inglewood Kiev was promoted to the Premier League from the 1992 SFWA First Division competition, and they signed Balga's coach Eddie Hodgkinson. Balga finished second in 1992, and many of the first team players followed Hodgkinson to play in the top flight.

Balga was allocated to play in the State League First Division (known as the Second Division at the time) in the new Professional Soccer Federation in 1993 and the club rebuilt under new coach Don Mann. However with the four bottom teams going down, and with the team losing its first seven games, the club never got out of the relegation zone.
